SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour, Liver Torpid or Bowels Clogged

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first-treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

ELSTER RIVER IN GERMANY IS RICH IN PEARLS

BERLIN, Germany.—It is not generally known, but Germany has a not inconsiderable pearl industry, and in the last 100 years many thousands of the gems have been fished up out of the waters of the various German rivers.

Bavaria has been the most productive portion of the empire. A total of 155,880 pearls, it is estimated, were found there between 1874 and 1905, and the annual aggregate has only decreased as the waters of Bavarian rivers have been spoiled by various industrial projects.

The most productive river has always been the Elster in Saxony, which for centuries has been rented to one family by the state. The year-in, year-out, average has shown that from three to four pearls can be obtained from every 100 muscels fished up, and that one out of every 15 pearls is of special value.

About 500 pearls of value have been taken from the Elster by the family in question in the last decade, the summer of 1912 being the most productive, with 47 good examples.

ALBANY'S SHADOW BECLOUDS OLD SCHOOL SHIP

Over the New York State nautical training ship Newport, which visited Honolulu last summer, hangs "a shadow that comes from Albany," and which, says the New York World, is seeking to abolish the vessel. The Newport is now tied up at the foot of East Twenty-fourth street, New York, with 112 cadets on board learning the art of seamanship.

Bills which aim to abolish the school are now in committee in both houses of the legislature and the cadets and officers fear that the recommendation of Gov. Whitman that the school be abandoned "in the interest of economy and also in view of other and more pressing educational needs of the state" may be accepted by the legislature. While the proposed legislation is pending alumni, friends of the school and civic bodies are banding together in an effort to defeat the bills and keep the Newport in the service of the state.

Friends Rally for Ship.
The Chamber of Commerce, the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, the Merchants' Association, the Security League and other organizations have come out in support of the school, and the campaign of the opponents of the bills is now mapped out. Those in favor of retaining the institution expect to get an early hearing before the legislative committee. School 40 Years Old.

The school has been in existence 40 years. The chamber of commerce was responsible for starting the institution. It was inaugurated as a part of the public school system of the city, and was under the jurisdiction of the board of education until three years ago. Then it became a part of the state system. The first school ship used was the old St. Mary's, a sailing vessel. In 1897 it was decided that because there was no chance to train men as engineers on the vessel it was necessary to obtain a craft equipped with power.

According to Capt. F. S. McMurray, superintendent of the school, the institution has already outgrown the Newport. He holds that a vessel of 3500 tons displacement is needed at the present time.

ALASKAN IS TAKING BIG SUGAR CARGO TO FRISCO; 13,500 TONS

Bound for San Francisco with a big cargo of island sugar, 13,500 tons, the Alaskan-Hawaiian steamer, Alaskan, is steaming toward the coast today, having sailed from Hilo about 30 yesterday afternoon.

When sailing via Panama or Magellan, the Alaskan had to carry so much fuel oil that she had room for only 15,000 tons. The shorter trip to San Francisco makes the biggest cargo possible, as fuel oil does not have to be carried.

Both the Texan and Mexican will be retained in carrying sugar from the islands to the coast, for reshipment, eastward by rail over the Santa Fe line to Chicago, and other lines to New York.

At a rate of $100,000 a month, the Alaskan-Hawaiian has chartered the Hawaiian to H. F. Ostrander for two voyages from Puget Sound to Vladivostok.
